

SHIRAZ

Tourist Places

▲ Shiraz is known as the city of flowers, nightingales, and lovers welcomes visitors with its gorgeous gardens and tall cypress trees. Great Persian poets, Hafez and Sa'adi have been born and lived in this graceful city and today, their delicate tombs are frequently visited by literature lovers.

▲ However, this is not all about Shiraz; having been the capital of Iran twice in history, the city embraces numerous historical monuments and tourist attractions, some with worldwide reputation. Many tourists enjoy visiting the 2500-year-old Persepolis and appreciate its glory. Pasargadae, tomb of Cyrus the Great, is still respected by many. The architecture of the complex remained from Zandiye dynasty also looks quite eye-catching with its charming colorful interior tileworks and exterior brickworks. Many photographers appreciate Shiraz for the famous Pink mosque, with its colorful windows that let the light shine in to the mosque. People here are well-known for being warm-hearted and hospitable and there are a lot waiting for you to enjoy here.
